

Noa Frenkel
Contralto

A versatile artist at home in many musical styles, and with an extensive vocal range, Noa Frenkel is a genuine contralto, whose repertoire reaches from the Renaissance to contemporary music.

Most recent opera appearances include Chaya Czernowin's Infinite Now at Vlaamse Opera and at Nationaltheater Mannheim and Hans Zender's Don Quijote de la Mancha with Klangforum Heidelberg at the Frankfurt LAB.

Other opera roles include Woman in Zaide/Adama by Mozart/Czernowin at the Salzburg Festival, Frau Ocholowska in the world premiere of Johannes Kalitzke's Die Besessenen at Theater an der Wien, La révérènde Mère in François Parls' Maria Republica for Angers Nantes Opera, Third lady in Mozart's Die Zauberflöte at the Angers Nantes Opera, Madame Flora in Menotti's The Medium and Philip Glass' Akhnaten in Rotterdam, the madrigal opera La Barca for the Nationale Reisopera, Stockhausen's Sonntag aus Licht at Oper Köln, conducted by Peter Rundel, Prima by Chaya Czernowin at Oper Stuttgart.

In concert, she has performed Bernstein's Songfest with the MDR Sinfonieorchester, Brahms Alto Rhapsody with the Israel Chamber Orchestra, Handel's Dixit Dominus with the Flemish Radio Choir, Donatoni's Abyss at Casa da Musica in Porto, Luigi Nono's Prometeo at Teatro alla Scala Milan, the Philharmonie Berlin, the Ruhrtriennale, Lucerne Festival, the Festival d'Automne Paris, with the SWR SO Freiburg/Baden-Baden and Ingo Metzmacher, Mahler's Das Lied von der Erde with the Orchestre Symphonique de Mulhouse, his Symphony no 2 with the Israel Symphony Orchestra Rishon Lezion, his Symphony no 3 with the Jerusalem Symphony Orchestra under Frederic Chaslin, Verdi's Requiem at the Ljubljana Festival, Morton Feldman's 3 Voices in Madrid, John Cage's Songbooks with Israeli ensemble Musica Nova and Nono's Guai ai gelidi mostri at the Salzburger Festspiele and the Wiener Festwochen.

Ms Frenkel has appeared with Baroque ensembles such as Les Arts Florissants, Elyma Ensemble, Combattimento Amsterdam, and the Utrecht Baroque Consort. She is a co-founder of the Kassiopeia quintet, an A-cappella group, which has recorded the complete madrigal books of Carlo Gesualdo.

As a sought-after interpreter of contemporary music, many composers have written works for her. She regularly performs at the main festivals in Europe with renowned ensembles such as Ensemble Modern, The Schönberg Ensemble, Klangforum Wien, L'Ensemble Intercontemporain, MusikFabrik, Ensemble Variences, The Israeli Contemporary Players, as well as the Experimental Studio Freiburg (SWR).

Until recently she was the soloist of the Dutch Maarten Altena Ensemble, a group dedicated to both improvised and written contemporary music, with whom she appeared in Europe, Japan, as well as North America and has recorded several CDs.

Constantly pursuing new ways to perform, Ms Frenkel has created the solo programme Solitude in the Age of Mass Media, combining new works with pieces by Mahler and Purcell in a multimedia performance, which she has presented in the Netherlands, Tel Aviv and Madrid.

Forthcoming projects include concert performances of Gubaidulina's Stunde der Seele with Windkraft Tirol at the Konzerthaus Wien, the world premiere of Thierry Pécou's new work Healing with Ensemble Variences at the Opera of Rouen, Paul Ben-Haim's Ben Hadasim with the Jerusalem Symphony Orchestra as part of the 2018 Israeli Music Days festival, as well as a lead role in the world premiere of a new opera by Chaya Czernowin at the Deutsche Oper Berlin.
